PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? There is an objection. Yes, Senator Kelly for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR KELLY: My objection is to be able to have a momentary dialogue with Senator Duis. It would just take a minute. Senator Duis, do we help or hurt by bracketing this at this time? These are E & R amendment. We could be doing that legal work while we're all out doing whatever it is we're going to do and pick up your amendment and discuss it on Select File? I think that's detrimental to you. I will support your bracketing.

SENATOR DUIS: No, the amendments that have been proposed this afternoon have been adopted. I'm sure they'll go ahead with those. It will merely be held in this position so that my amendment can be made on Monday. I have no intention whatsoever of being detrimental to this bill. I'm trying to save it. I just don't want to see the bill fail on final reading, so I want to be able to propose my amendment Monday when everybody is here so we'll be able to take it and discuss it. The amendments have been proposed by Senator Cavanaugh and E & R have been adopted I'm sure. It will be in perfectly good shape then.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you very much. Mr. President, I remove my objection.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh, do you object to the unanimous consent?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well I'll object for a moment and talk to Senator Duis, if I can. Senator Duis, why Monday?

SENATOR DUIS: Well I understood that we were going to adjourn today until Monday morning.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well why don't we do it now?

SENATOR DUIS: I don't think we have everyone here. We seem to have a lack of people here. The Judiciary Committee's gone, and as I look around there are quite a number gone.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: You don't have enough votes to reduce it today?

SENATOR DUIS: I'm not concerned about that at all. If you want to object to it I'll put it to a motion.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: No I won't object.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to Senator Duis' request for unanimous consent that 198 be bracketed, in its present condition, until Monday? Seeing none, it's so ordered.

Senator Dworak, I hate to interrupt.

SENATOR DWORAK: I move the adoption of the amendments to LB 96.
